Join us for a unique experience travelling through three eras in South African history, from the Apartheid years to the New South Africa. Visit the Bo-Kaap to learn about the arrival of Dutch sailors in 1652. Passing some of Cape Town's landmarks, a short drive takes you to District Six then continues to Langa, the oldest informal settlement in Cape Town. Stop for a photo opportunity at the site commemorating the student uprising of 1976 to learn about the Pass Laws and the barracks built for African migrant workers. If conducted on a Sunday morning, the tour includes a short visit to one of the local churches.
